

Evita is a primocane variety which stands out because of its high yield. The plants have a strong vigour and develop a high number of fruiting laterals. Its fruits are characterized by a regular shape and a good size, and are therefore the ideal choice to fulfil the requests of most markets.

Plant

Type	Primocane
Habit	Very robust Spreading habit High number of fruiting laterals Very long laterals
Productivity	High
Production period	Autumn: mid-season Spring: mid-season

Fruit

Shape	Elongated cone
Colour	Red
Size	Medium (average fruit weight: 6.2g)
Firmness	Medium
Detachment	Easy